Subject: RE: Extremely Disappointed with Service - RESOLUTION PLAN

Dear Mr. Lim,

Our comprehensive electrical inspection has identified the root cause of the recurring lighting issue:

Problem Identified:

- Faulty circuit breaker in main panel
- Causing intermittent power loss to all Level 9 common area lighting
- This explains why previous fixture-level repairs didn't resolve the issue

Permanent Solution:

- Replace faulty circuit breaker
- Rewire affected circuits
- Install surge protector
- Work schedule: Thursday, March 21 (10pm-6am overnight to avoid business disruption)

This will permanently resolve the issue. The work will be completed by Friday morning.

As a gesture of goodwill for the repeated inconvenience, we will credit one month of building management fees to your account ($350).

Thank you for your patience and for bringing this to our attention.

Best regards,

James Tan

Subject: RE: Extremely Disappointed with Service

Dear Mr. Lim,

I sincerely apologize for the recurring lighting issue and the frustration this has caused you and your team.

I have personally reviewed your complaint history and you are absolutely right - this is the third time you've reported this issue. Our previous attempts addressed the symptoms but not the root cause.

Immediate Action Plan:

- Comprehensive electrical inspection scheduled: Tuesday, March 19 (9am-12pm)
- Senior electrician will inspect the entire Level 9 electrical circuit
- Full diagnostic report by end of Tuesday
- Permanent solution implementation by March 22

I am personally overseeing this matter to ensure it is resolved properly this time. You will receive daily updates until completion.

Again, I apologize for the repeated inconvenience. This level of service does not meet our standards, and we are committed to making this right.

Please feel free to contact me directly if you have any concerns.

Best regards,

James Tan

Subject: Extremely Disappointed with Service

Michael,

I am extremely disappointed with the service we've been receiving. This is the THIRD time we've had issues that haven't been properly resolved.

We've reported the faulty common area lighting on our floor twice already, and it's still not fixed. This is unacceptable and affecting our business operations.

I expect immediate action or I will escalate this to your management.
